STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

As per section 13 of the Kerala Survey and Boundaries Act, 1961 (Act 37 of 1961) when the survey of any land or boundary has been completed and notified in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, then unless the survey thus notified is modified by a decree of a civil court, it shall be conclusive proof that the survey and boundary so determined and recorded have been correctly determined and recorded. The land owners are put into genuine difficulties as they have to approach the civil courts to rectify the defects on account of the mistakes crept in the resurvey records which have been notified under section 13 of the Kerala Survey and Boundaries Act, 1961. Government, therefore, considered it necessary to invest the District Collectors with power of revision on the ground of any discrepancy, inaccuracy, defect or mistake of any kind crept in such determination.

2. A Bill to amend the Kerala Survey and Boundaries Act, 1961 for the above purpose was published as Bill No.7 of the 11th Kerala Legislative Assembly but the same could not be introduced in the Legislative Assembly due to lack of time.

3. As the provisions of the above said Bill had to be given effect to immediately the Kerala Survey and Boundaries (Amendment) Ordinance, 2006 (6 of 2006) was promulgated by the Governor on the 6th day of January, 2006 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 36 dated the 6th January, 2006.

4. A Bill to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature could not be introduced in, and passed by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Kerala during its sessions which commenced on 3rd day of February, 2006 and ended on 21st day of February, 2006 and which commenced on 14th March, 2006 and ended on 15th March, 2006. Therefore the Kerala Survey and Boundaries (Amendment) Ordinance, 2006 (26 of 2006) was promulgated by the Governor on the 17th day of March, 2006 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 602 dated 17-3-2006.

5. A Bill to replace Ordinance No. 26 of 2006 was published as Bill No. 2 of Twelfth Kerala Legislative Assembly, but the same could not be introduced in, and passed by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Kerala during its session which commenced on 24th May, 2006 and ended on the 30th June, 2006.

6. Therefore, to keep alive the provisions of the said Ordinance, the Kerala Survey and Boundaries (Amendment) Ordinance, 2006 (39 of 2006) was promulgated by the Governor on the 5th day of July, 2006 and was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 1133 dated the 5th July, 2006.

7. The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill, if enacted and brought into operation, would not involve any additional expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Sub-section (1) of section 13A proposed to be inserted by clause 3 of the Bill seeks to empower the Collector to revise the legality of the determination of boundary notified under section 13 of the Act either suo motu, or by an application from any person.

2. Sub-section (2) of the said section proposed to be inserted by clause 3 of the Bill seeks to empower the Survey Officer to publish the fact of modification or revision under sub-clause (1), in the Gazette and also in the notice board of the village officer to which the surveys relates.

3. The above are matters of an administrative or routine nature or matters of detail. The delegation of Legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.
