Inviting attention to the letter cited, wherein the policy decision of Government that Communal Reservation need not be followed in respect of direct recruitment of departmental candidates against departmental quota if not provided in the Special Rules is conveyed, I am directed to inform that in certain Special Rules there is provision for Communal Reservation and in certain other special rules no communal reservation is allowed in respect of direct recruitment of departmental candidates against departmental quota. As such a uniform procedure in the matter could not be maintained while advising candidates against departmental quota.

The Commission have considered the issue and have decided that departmental candidates who had already been conferred the benefit of Communal Reservation at the time of initial recruitment by Public Service Commission need not be considered for the benefit of Communal Reservation when they are being considered again for appointment by transfer against Departmental Quota.

Sub:-Public Services - Direct Recruitment of Departmental Candidates - Rules of Reservation - reg.

Ref:-Letter No.A.V III(1)-5003/93/GW dt.29.1.2001 from the Secretary, KPSC.

Govt. had taken a policy decision that communal reservation need not be followed in case of direct recruitment from departmental candidates against the departmental quota, if not provided in the Special Rules.

The Secretary, Kerala Public Service Commission in his letter referred to above has informed that in certain Special Rules there is provision for Communal Reservation and in certain other special rules no communal reservation is allowed in respect of direct recruitment of departmental candidates against departmental quota. As such a uniform procedure in the matter could not be maintained while advising candidates against departmental quota.

The Commission have considered the above issue and have decided that departmental candidates who had already been conferred the benefit of Communal Reservation at the time of initial recruitment by PSC need not be considered for the benefit of Communal Reservation when they are being considered again for appointment by transfer against departmental quota and have requested to take appropriate steps to amend the provisions in the existing Special Rules wherein Communal Reservation is made applicable for departmental candidates in the case of appointment by transfer against departmental quota so as to maintain a uniform provision in the rules.

In the above circumstances, all ^{the} departments in ^{one} the Secretariat may be requested to take steps to ^{suitably} amend the provisions in the existing Special Rules, wherein communal reservation is made applicable for departmental candidates in the case of appointment by transfer against departmental quota.
